Duration: 15 months

After a tough few years with COVID-related issues, the events industry is on the road to recovery.

The Event Assistant Apprenticeship, combining elements of marketing, communications, project management, logistics, sustainability and more, is often the first stop for new entrants or for upgrading the skills of existing junior staff.

In addition to knowledge, apprentices gain the skills and behaviours they need. They develop strong internal and external communication skills, generate creative ideas, work well within a team and become competent, respectful and, above all, adaptable to the needs of each project.

Our Event Assistant apprentices consistently outperform expectations. Last year's official achievement rate was 12% higher than the average of other providers.

"It has been amazing to go through this learning journey with [the apprentice]. There's been a great layering of topics and the support that we have received from JGA has been wonderful, thank you."

Manager, Royal Opera House
